Downtown Living Tour Scheduled for June 23
Event will showcase unique residential options in Wichita's urban core

WICHITA, Kan. – 5/24/2018 – To highlight the unique residential properties in Wichita's urban core, the Downtown Wichita organization and participating residential properties are hosting the Downtown Living Tour on Saturday, June 23 from 2 – 6 p.m.

The tour will feature a diverse range of living options including minimal studios, contemporary lofts and unique floorplans.

"We have seen tremendous growth in our residential sector, and the variety of distinctive living spaces that have come online has been exciting to see.

The Downtown Living Tour is the perfect opportunity for the community to experience the Downtown lifestyle," says Jeff Fluhr, President of Downtown Wichita.

The Downtown Living Tour is a free open house event. Ten participating residential properties will welcome visitors to view units and amenities. Properties include:

250 Douglas Place
Broadway Autopark
Colorado Derby Lofts
Pinnacle Lofts & Apartments
River Vista Apartments
The Douglas Apartments
The Finn Lofts
The Flats 324
The LUX
WaterWalk Hotel Apartments

The day of the event, attendees can pick up a printed map from participating properties or view an online map on their mobile device. The tour is self-paced and attendees can move between stops at their leisure, either by walking, renting a bicycle through Bike Share ICT or by riding the free Q-LINE Trolley, which will be running its standard route. Entrances to each property will be designated with signage.

The Pop-Up Park (121 E. Douglas) will serve as home base for the event. Downtown Wichita staff will be at the park to answer questions and provide directional assistance. Printed maps will be available and food trucks will be on site with food and beverage for purchase.

The public is encouraged to attend. No RSVP is necessary. Additional event information can be found at www.downtownwichita.org/livingtour
