Elevating our Streetscapes

Flowers on Douglas is a volunteer-based beautification project. Launched in 2017, the initiative includes more than 200 meticulously crafted planter pots and hanging baskets adorning Wichita's bustling Douglas Avenue. Sheriff of Flowers on Douglas Cindy Carnahan leads the effort in collaboration with Downtown Wichita, Hein Lawn and Landscaping and a group of master gardeners.

Installation, Spring 2017

In April of 2017, more than 100 planter pots along Douglas Avenue showcased flowers and greenery.

Project Expansion, Summer 2018

In June of 2018, over 80 hanging baskets filled with cascading flowers were added to further enhance the beautiful foliage. Today there is more than 120 hanging baskets lining Douglas Avenue during the summer months.

Your Investment is Critical

Flowers on Douglas is a volunteer-based initiative with the purchase of plants supported by donations. In order to make this project a success and maintain the desired visual impact, your investment is critical.
