A community-wide celebration

The First Friday Gallery Crawl is a unique opportunity for thousands of students, families and art lovers to engage with local art each month at unique locations in downtown and throughout the city. This grassroots event continues to thrive because of the collective vision and collaboration of galleries and artists.

As the name implies, First Friday happens the first Friday of each month. Hours vary between galleries, but most are open during the core hours of 7 to 9 p.m. Most galleries use First Friday to unveil and debut new shows or as a closing reception. All venues are free and open to the public and several galleries across the city incorporate artist demonstrations and/or live music. Not only does this event give guests the opportunity to view creative art space, it also is an excellent time to purchase one-of-a-kind artwork directly from artists.

Through cartoon-inspired imagery, humor and childhood nostalgia, the work explores complicated childhood memories, trauma and healing. The playful visual style softens difficult subject matter while examining the contrast between childhood innocence and the realities of growing up. Aly H. is a non-binary artist originally from southeastern North Carolina who earned a Bachelor of Arts in Studio Art from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke and is currently based in Wichita. Bears are a recurring subject in their work with their persona Honey serving as the central character.
