A community-wide celebration

The First Friday Gallery Crawl is a unique opportunity for thousands of students, families and art lovers to engage with local art each month at unique locations in downtown and throughout the city. This grassroots event continues to thrive because of the collective vision and collaboration of galleries and artists.

As the name implies, First Friday happens the first Friday of each month. Hours vary between galleries, but most are open during the core hours of 7 to 9 p.m. Most galleries use First Friday to unveil and debut new shows or as a closing reception. All venues are free and open to the public and several galleries across the city incorporate artist demonstrations and/or live music. Not only does this event give guests the opportunity to view creative art space, it also is an excellent time to purchase one-of-a-kind artwork directly from artists.

KINTA MCGHEE

For the past few years, Februllage has been a cornerstone of my creative practice. Februllage is an Instagram art challenge held each February, a month-long exploration of collage, shaped by daily prompts and the spontaneity they inspire.

What began as an exercise in discipline and discovery has deepened into a true love for the medium, allowing me to refine my voice through paper, texture, and found imagery.

This collection marks a milestone: for the first time, I am offering the original works for sale. While I have previously shared these pieces as limited edition prints, this show presents them in their raw, tactile form—their layers, edges, and imperfections fully intact. Each collage is a reflection of a fleeting moment in time, captured and reassembled into something entirely new.

I invite you to explore these works, to find your own connections within them, and to celebrate the unexpected beauty that emerges when fragments come together.
