Yoga in the Park

Free Community Classes in Downtown Wichita

Step away from the desk and into the park. A midweek rest has returned to the city's core for Downtown Wichita's Yoga in the Park. The rejuvenating, all-levels yoga session is designed to help you de-stress, stretch and reconnect with your community! Whether you're a seasoned yogi or unrolling a mat for the first time, there's a spot for you downtown.

- When: Wednesdays, noon to 1 p.m., April 8 – May 27.
- Where: Chester I. Lewis Reflection Square Park, 205 E. Douglas Ave.
- Cost: Free (Registration Required). Click here to register.
- What to Bring: A yoga mat (or a beach towel), a water bottle and a smile.

Why Join Us?

- Breath of Fresh Air: Boost your mood and vitamin D levels by practicing yoga outdoors.
- Community Connection: Meet your neighbors and strengthen your bond with the downtown Wichita community.
- Mind-Body Reset: Lower your stress and increase mental clarity in a supportive, non-judgmental environment.

Ready to Begin?

Please complete the brief registration form below. Downtown Wichita is also conducting a short health and well-being survey at the start and end of the program to help measure the program's impact. Registration is limited to 45 spots on a first come, first-served basis, so register today!
