CityArts Juneteenth Exhibition

In celebration of Juneteenth, this exhibition brings together the work of 28 artists from across the United States, each exploring the power, beauty, and complexity of Black identity. All featured artworks are created by people of color or center people of color, offering a vibrant and varied lens through which to reflect on history, liberation, and the present moment.

Juneteenth marks the end of slavery in the United States—but its legacy is not confined to the past. This show honors the ongoing struggle for justice, the richness of cultural expression, and the enduring creativity that blooms in resistance and resilience.

Across media and styles, these pieces speak to lived experience, collective memory, joy, mourning, and pride. Together, they form a chorus of voices—diverse, powerful, and necessary. This show is not only a celebration of freedom, but a recognition that freedom is a practice, an art, and a right still being claimed.
